Cielo indiviso (Poesia) (Volume 8) (Italian Edition) Roberto Maggiani

Sono poesie che ci giungono dal mare e dal cielo, riecheggiando sulle scogliere portoghesi e mediterranee riempiono gli spazi delle città. I versi conducono attraverso i vicoli di Lisbona e da lì si muovono verso l'Algarve, descrivendo, con echi quasi parnassiani, le creature reali, immaginarie o mitologiche, che vivono nei villaggi della costa oceanica. Elementi semplici e primordiali, quali l'acqua e la luce, dirigono lo sguardo interiore verso profondità poco esplorate dell'anima, i pensieri acquistano una liquida luminosità e una vita che diventa indipendente, pur rimanendo legati in maniera quasi onirica agli elementi che l'hanno generata. Dio è presente ma tra le quinte, si lascia indovinare tramite la bellezza del mondo e ci lambisce con la sua luce, come le onde del mare sono descritte a lambire la rena. La raccolta è un canto sì di riflessione ma anche espressione di gioia e pace quando ci presenta scene di vita semplice quali una festa in piazza o frammenti di vita visti sotto una luce intimista. Giuliano Brenna
