Excerpt from The Same Lord: An Account of the Mission Tour of the Rev. George C. Grubb, M. An.;, In Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand, From April 3rd to 1891, to July 7th, 1892

During the tour recorded in "What God hath Wrought," and while Mr. Grubb was passing through Melbourne, an invitation to conduct missions throughout Victoria was handed to him, signed by the Bishop of Melbourne, Dean Macartney, and several clergy. This Mr. Grubb was at the time unable to accept, but promised to lay the matter in prayer before the Lord, that he might be guided as to so important a step. Early in 1891 the way was made plain for him to accept the invitation, and on April 3rd he left England for the Colonies, accompanied by Mrs. Millard and myself. The Lord showed us very clearly that we were to look to Him alone for both guidance and support.

More than the necessary passage money was given, unasked, by generous friends, including one amount of £105, which was handed to me through a railway carriage window as Mrs. Millard and I were travelling from the North to London only a few weeks before sailing.
