La revolución del sur. 1912-1914 (Spanish Edition) Francisco Pineda Gomez

El relato sigue la huella de tres campañas del Ejército Libertador sobre la capital de la República, operaciones no consideradas hasta ahora en la historiografía del zapatismo, y con ese dato examina los alcances y problemas enfrentados. Asimismo, al develar el genocidio cometido por distintos gobiernos, expone los mecanismos del discurso racista que acompañó la acción de exterminio de la población indígena en el sur y el centro de México. Este libro da continuidad a La irrupción zapatista. 1911.
