Shortly after the dawn of creation, the heavens existed in perfect balance. Peace and harmony reigned. To maintain this balance the Lord God almighty appointed servants of great power and wisdom throughout the heavens. He called them angels. In the mist of eternity arose one who shattered the perfect balance and brought destruction for a time. However, a great promise of restoration lies hidden within the course of time. The Lord placed this promise of restoration within his newest creation – man. What of the angel that left the order? Could man make the promise a reality? The Rebellion: The End is Known from the Beginning recounts the great struggle between good and evil right where it began – Heaven.
