Design Dossier: The World of Design (Design Dossiers) Pamela Pease

Kids experience design firsthand in this interactive series that engages a variety of learning styles and develops creative problem-solving skills. Books in the series focus on a wide array of design disciplines, ranging from architecture and interior design to film, animation, and environmental design. In The World of Design, kids explore line, color, shape, texture, pattern and composition, and questions including What is design? and How does the creative process work? Insights from top contemporary designers and fold-out timelines help kids understand how design affects their everyday lives. A project at the end of the book challenges kids to put what they learn into action. For aspiring young designers age 9+.
