Motti Gordon is a regular kid living in the 21st Century when suddenly he is propelled back in time to the fear and danger of the evil Spanish Inquisition, where torture and secrecy are a way of life. When Motti meets Marco and Juan, his life really takes a twist as the three boys discover that their Jewish practices have been discovered and the Inquisition is in hot pursuit. This vivid, intense novel is a realistic portrayal of the horrors of the Spanish Inquisition, giving young adults a poignant perspective on the plight of the anusim—their faith, their commitment to Hashem, and the Divine Providence that they experienced.
