The Camouflaged Church James B. Raiford

The title, "The camouflaged Church," is designed to identify specific components of the contemporary church. A prime purpose is to challenge the beliefs and behavior of what is being billed as the new changing church for changing times and people. A close examination of what is called the contemporary church reveals it does not adhere to biblical theology and standards. When a person attends the new church they do not find it to be a church dominated by the Bible. It is actually the result of what people, called the un-churched in the new culture, desire and demand. Camouflage exists and this book identifies what they are and how they affect the true New Testament Church. Samples of Camouflage Identified and discussed are: Gospel Discipleship Missions Lordship Salvation Faith Worship Music Preaching Church Pastor's Role Emerging Church
