Africa: Etats faillis, miracles ordinaires (French Edition) Richard Dowden

Un état des lieux magistral du continent le plus tourmenté du monde. Un livre profondément émouvant et optimiste. Chaque fois que vous tentez d'expliquer « L'Afrique, c'est... », les mots se désagrègent, se dissolvent. Chaque fois que vous tentez d'exprimer une généralité sur l'Afrique, il y aura toujours au moins cinq pays qui feront exception. Et quand vous pensez être arrivé à une certitude, vous réalisez que le point de vue opposé est vrai lui aussi... L'Afrique est pleine de surprises. Pendant trois décennies, Richard Dowden a parcouru ce continent aussi vaste que varié, écoutant, découvrant et remettant sans cesse ses certitudes en cause. Pays après pays, il explore dans ces pages les situations locales, prend en compte les avis personnels, relate les incidents, les actions et les rencontres pour nous raconter l'Afrique sub-saharienne d'aujourd'hui.

Le résultat est un livre phare : envoûtant, éclairant et toujours surprenant. Tout ce qu'on a toujours souhaité comprendre à propos de l'Afrique, raconté, expliqué en termes clairs, avec en filigrane la passion contagieuse d'un auteur pour son sujet.

" Un compte-rendu intelligent, juste et éclairé sur l'Afrique. Dowden écrit avec passion et à ce titre mérite le titre de porte-parole de l'Afrique" THE TIMES
