Sea Anemones...As a Hobby (Save Our Planet) U. Erich Friese

Sea Anemones as a Hobby provides the information that marine aquarists need in order to be able to maintain sea anemones in a home aquarium. It tells which species are relatively the easiest to keep and which present special problems over and above the general difficulties that these cnidarian animals pose for even experienced saltwater enthusiasts. Water quality, feeding, suitable (and completely unsuitable) companions are all covered well. 320 pages, soft cover.
