I creatori di mondi

Primo libro.

Millenni dopo il collasso del pianeta la civiltà umana si ricostituisce in tredici enormi Città-Regno unite in un unico Impero, la cui società è dominata dall'idea di successo ed il valore più grande consiste nel crearsi un'immagine ed un reddito superiore agli altri; i più deboli vengono relegati ai margini di questa realtà, mentre alcuni fuggono dalle città nel Grande Deserto, dove le condizioni di vita sono disperate.

In questo mondo vive Venò, un giovane dal carattere indipendente e solitario, ma comunque ben integrato, che, dopo essere venuto fortuitamente a conoscenza di alcune verità sul passato del genere umano, è costretto a fuggire nel Grande Deserto, dove viene salvato e cresciuto da un ex-ingegnere di fama mondiale.

Venò diverrà così un cacciatore di taglie e la sua nuova vita lo porterà a compiere viaggi e a fare esperienze incredibili, che insinueranno in lui terribili sospetti sulla vera indole delle persone che governano il mondo e sul modo in cui controllano i loro sudditi.

Durante il viaggio dovrà affrontare diversi nemici ma stringerà anche molte fortunate amicizie, che lo faranno crescere spiritualmente e fisicamente: dal vecchio Joori, monaco guerriero che combatte solitario contro l'Impero per motivi sconosciuti, apprenderà della misteriosa energia del pianeta e dei segreti che portano a dominarla e, accanto a Barsh Waxtom, acerrimo nemico dell'Impero e capitano di un'invincibile astronave a forma di veliero, solcherà i cieli alla ricerca della libertà.

Sull'intero pianeta, intanto, incombe la minaccia di Hugkran, terribile mostro sfuggito da un laboratorio dove si svolgono disumani esperimenti.
