The Word Michael Barriere

The Word provides a chronological biography of the life of Christ Jesus, drawn exclusively from the King James version of the bible. This skillfully crafted compilation, taken from the four primary gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), and added material from Acts and Revelation, weaves together a seamless story about Jesus, the man, faithfully using His own words. In telling this story, just enough gospel narration is used to set the context and provide flow for His words. The book also includes dates and places where events occurred, and two "Study Guides": one for quotations used, and one for footnotes. This insightful book guides the reader, whether a beginner, serious student, or anyone curious about Jesus or Christianity, to focus on themes such as faith, service, love and forgiveness.
