Lesbian Romance: Open Wide!: My Lesbian Awakening at the Doctor's Office R.P. James

I'm about to have the most thorough examination of my life at the doctor's office....

Lately, I just can't seem to sit still. I squirm constantly in my seat as I wait at the doctor's office, unable to clear my head and feeling constantly as though I'm under scrutiny from those around me.

For instance, there is this woman sitting across from me with her girlfriend, staring at me, and instantly my mind begins to reel, fantasizing about the three of us making love, even despite the fact that I've always considered myself as straight as a damn arrow.

I've been having this problem a lot lately, and beneath the surface, I think it's part of what's causing my anxiety. I'm secretly very, very attracted to other girls, yet I refuse to allow myself to realize these feelings.

That is, until Nurse Daisy gets her hands on me to examine me, and I find myself subjected to her powerful healing touch....

This is a lesbian standalone romance with a happy ending from published author R.P. James Warning: This book contains lots of hot sex, drama, and adult language. Enjoy!
