Evette Howard teaches golf and works at her father's pro shop. Several months have passed since Justin Greene broke their engagement, and Evette still doubts that she'll ever trust another man. She isn't ready to step into another relationship... or even rejoin her church friends. But Anthony Edwards, sportswriter for the local paper and her new golf student, is persistent in inviting Evette to church - so persistent that she begins to wonder if he's trying to win a prize for bringing guests. When Evette finally agrees to visit, she discovers that only God can fill the emptiness in her heart. Soon, Evette finds that two men want to win her love. Now what will she do?
